President's Message

On behalf of the Board of Directors I would like to wish all our members and our fellow Zoroastrians a very Happy Navroze, full of good health, happiness, friendship and prosperity. May Ahura Mazda bestow his blessings on humanity worldwide.

The past few months have been very busy with various functions and activities held at OZCF just about every weekend. The variety of events were held, from Cricket Dhansak, the Lamb Roast picnic, seniors activities, hall rental for private parties etc. Large number of our members enjoyed the Cricket Dhansak and Lamb Roast picnic.

The Town of Oakville committee of adjustment gave their blessings on the minor variance application for the construction of the patio cover (porch) and installation of the storage shed. We have also received the Site alteration permit from Town's Engineering department and now we have submitted the construction permit application along with all necessary documents and drawings. We hope to receive the construction permit by the first week of September.

I am pleased to announce that OZCF and ZSO jointly celebrated Shehenshahi Navroze at Payal Banquet Hall on August 19.

Wish you all very happy Navroz.

 Jal Panthaky

Lamb Roast Picnic 2011

Members flocked to the ZRCC on Sunday, July 10, 2011 to engage in the OZCF's Lamb Roast. The meat wasn't the only item roasting – a stickier than typical July day had participants preferring to spend the better part of the afternoon within the comfort of air-conditioning in the hall.

The annual summer feast provided succulent lamb for the participants to devour. For those who chose to linger, there was kalinger (watermelon) and ice cream to cool the palate and to digest lunch.

Plaudits to the Entertainment Committee for putting together another fruitful Lamb Roast. The greatest strength of this dynamic lies in their collective ability to organize and effectuate one successful event after another.

OZCF SCOUTS GROUP COMING SOON!

NEW! The OZCF Executive Board has gladly accepted the proposal to be a sponsor of a new Scouts Group under Scouts Canada - Central Escarpment Area. If you are interested in sending your sons and daughters to enrol under our own Zoroastrian Scout Group, please contact Khushroo Bharda at kbbharda@hotmail.com or call 905-607-6882. We will be accepting any child between the age group of 5 to 18 years (with one parent a Parsi/ Irani/ Zoroastrian). Your feedback is important to us to determine the logistics and space and cost towards starting a new Scouts Group. Thanks, Khushroo Bharda, Scouts Canada - DAC - Awards and Recognition GTC

A Worthy Cause—Please Save your Milkbags!

As announced in the June 2011 Newsletter, Armaity Anandasagar is making sleeping mats to send overseas to the victims natural disasters. Remarkably, these mats are made from the OUTER, branded plastic milk bags that hold the individual bags of milk in them. (not the inner 3 bags). They remain mildew-free and are ideal for these living conditions.

In keeping with current world events, we know the need is greater than ever! Armaity is running two Girl Guides camps in September, and they can make the most of the “girl-power”!

Again, please collect your milk bags and bring them to OZCF whenever you come for any function! If you can make sure they are dry and clean and flattened, it would help. This will mean that it will save her time to wash and dry them, and remove the smell of stale milk. Thank you for your support.

Nargis Jasavala Profiled in the FEZANA Journal
“A Legacy of Great Food”

The following is an excerpt of an article that appears in the Summer/ June 2011 issue of the FEZANA Journal, written by Teenaz Javat.

“We came away with whatever we could carry with us. We sneaked out in the dead of night carefully, quietly so that no one would hear us. It is tough enough to keep five small children quiet for any length of time. Tough to explain to them that we cannot take anything with us and that we should be grateful we are simply alive.”

So in the dead of night in 1968 Rohinton and Nargis Jasavala gathered their kids Rayomand, Farshogar, Jehanbuksh, Yesna and Hutoxi and left a lifestyle in Zanzibar, which no matter how hard they tried, they could never manage to reclaim for the rest of their life.

Sitting in her wing chair, her walker beside her, Mrs. Jasavala poignantly recalls her life in Zanzibar (an island off the East coast of Africa) and seldom in the course of the interview do her eyes remain dry.

“My father Ratanshaw Bulsara was the editor of Adel-d-Insaaf, a local newspaper in Zanzibar. We had good standing in society and although not very rich we were comfortable. The Parsi community was thriving under British protectorate and the Parsi Ajiary was the hub of all activity,” she adds.

However, the future did not hold much promise. Soon after the British left in 1968, all foreigners were told to leave Zanzibar. The island gained independence from Britain in December 1963 as a constitutional monarchy. A month later was the bloody Zanzibar Revolution, in which thousands of Arabs and Indians were killed and thousands more expelled. The revolution led to the establishment of the Republic of Zanzibar and Pemba. In April 1964 the republic was subsumed by the mainland former colony of Tanganyika. This United Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar was soon renamed the United Republic of Tanzania, of which Zanzibar remains a semi-autonomous region.

Eight months pregnant with her fifth child, the young Nargis was sent away to India in an attempt to keep the family safe. “Four kids in tow I left first for Dar-e-Salem then into Nairobi, then to Egypt and at last to India, what a journey it was. I delivered in a month of reaching India and was totally stressed out.”

In an attempt to hand on to his job at the British cable and wireless company, Rohinton Jasavala stayed on in Zanzibar. In fact, after his youngest child, Hutoxi was born in India, he called the family back to Zanzibar thinking that things would improve after the revolution, as moving around with five kids had its challenges.

The family decided to ride out the revolution under the hope that things might calm down. Only when it was just not possible to continue, did they leave for the United States. They settled in Philadelphia where Mrs. Jasavala worked as a teacher’s aid and her husband in Western Union.

In 1972 on her brother’s insistence, the family left the rough neighbourhood in Philadelphia and moved to Canada and settled in Mississauga, Ontario. And it is here that the seeds of the legendary business took root. Bringing up five kids was hard even a generation ago and having learnt to cook at her mother-in-law’s house, Mrs. Jasavala started cooking dar-ni-poori, batasas and vasanoo in addition to taking party orders for meals.

“I used to cook for seven on a daily basis, so cooking a bit more was not such a big deal.” One to recognize great food, the Parsis in the Greater Toronto Area responded by overwhelming her with food orders to an extent that soon she was cooking out of a rented kitchen in Etobicoke.

The Zoroastrian Society of Ontario came on board and soon they were regularly asked to cater to Nowruz and Pateti functions for over 300 people.

“We made sure we were never short of food and never till today has my food ever gone bad. We were known for our quality” she adds.

...In 2004, 28 years after setting up her first kitchen she called it quits. The mother of 5 and grandmother of 10 found it hard to continue. Cooking is extremely labour intensive and as the business grew they had to hire help, which would eat into their profit margin. While Mrs. Jasavala enjoyed her retirement, Rohinton did not take it well. “The business was his pride and joy,” she adds, wiping away a few tears. “He was lonely and did not know what to do with his time. When we were running the business he would be up at the crack of dawn going to wholesale markets to buy groceries, sorting it out and then helping in the cooking. He missed his work a lot”

Mr. Jasavala did not live long enough to enjoy his retirement. He passed away of cancer in 2009. Mrs. Jasavala still lives in the family home in Oakville surrounded by fond memories of a hard life well lived.

Navroze—August 19th, 2011

The Shehenshahi year ended with the week long Muktads. With the community coming together and sharing in the prayers and remembrances of our dearly departed souls, and the myriad of volunteers who brought flowers, cooked meals and helped clean the OZCF, there is no doubt that our little community flourishing and working together. Navroze was celebrated with a Jashan and a sumptuous meal at the Payal Banquet Hall. What made this Navroze special? It was a joint function with our sister association-ZSO and there were approximately 650 friends and family in attendance. Each of the associations honoured three special volunteers for the time given to make both associations as successful as they are, with a plaque.

Both presidents spoke of their wish to see both associations working together and celebrating together.

There was plenty of fine food, camaraderie, toe-tapping music and good old fashioned fun!

The entertainment committees from both the OZCF & the ZSO are to be commended on the fabulous job they did in putting this function together. Their hard work and dedication is always appreciated.

Navroze Mubarak everyone!

Third Annual Cricket/Dhanshak Day

The OZCF 3rd Annual Cricket Dhanshak Day, held on Sunday, July 24, 2011, was graced with sunshine and warm temperatures. The cricket wicket was carefully prepared over a month preceding the event and played extremely well with even bounce that allowed the bowlers to bowl their googlies, out-swingers and in-swingers. The batsmen enjoyed the luxury of the true surface and fast outfield allowing plenty of runs to be scored.

The day began with the selection of two equally balanced teams, named "Team Zurkari" and "Team Wadia" after Canada's two Zoroastrian international players. The first game consisted of 30 over s per side and a limit of 5 bowling overs per player. The players ranged in age from 13 years to the oldest player, octogenarian Bejan Sidhwa, who was batting without a runner and playing some magnificent shots!

Another first for the OZCF, the Information Technology group had set up a complex computer network that allowed live broadcast of the event. The OZCF cricket was broadcast over the internet live from the field and also into the hall of the OZCF on a big screen.

Simultaneously, we were broadcasting the test match between India and England, live from London's Lords cricket ground onto a high definition TV in the OZCF hall. The OZCF has been a leader in starting live broadcast of Zoroastrian events globally and continue to forge forward in using technology to reach out to the Zoroastrians around the world.

The first game ended very close with 4 runs required of the last ball to tie the game chasing 156 runs. The bowler ran in off his 20 steps run up, leaped into the air as he delivered a blistering ball towards the batsman. The batsman carefully followed the flight of the ball and gingerly moved his feet as he danced down the wicket and struck a glorious four straight over the bowlers head to have a superb finish to the game.

This was followed by a 6 over a side game to round off the last hour of play against a lovely red sunset on the horizon.

The traditional Dhanshak followed at 7pm with attendance of 70 people enjoying the evening sunset and warm temperatures that caressed the beautiful grounds of the OZCF. Discussion around the games played on that day and the types of dismissals and glorious shots was to be heard and people were already talking about next year.

Thank you's must be given to Hutoxi Kitigawa, Havovi Bharda, Tina Dalal, Rhea Jasavala, Roshni Jasavala, Xerxes Suchak and Sonya Suchak for the preparation and serving of the food which is always a big hit at this event. Thank you's are also extended to the entire Sports Committee and Xarius Jasavala, Rhea Jasavala, Roshni Jasavala and Anyta Kitagawa for their work in the preparation of the OZCF facility, grass cutting, raking, watering and rolling of the field and cricket pitch.

It is without doubt a very unique event that the OZCF holds as it strives to keep the rich heritage of cricket within the Zoroastrian community alive in a country where cricket is not that well known. The Sports Committee would like to finally thank Logihedron for their sponsorship of this event and to all those that took part. We look forward to hosting the OZCF 4th Annual Cricket Dhanshak in 2012.

Another Cricket Shining Star—Khushroo Wadia!

Most recently, family and friends of Zubin Surkari gave him a great reception to acknowledge his achievements for playing for the National Canadian team and being only the 3rd Zoroastrian to play in a Cricket World Cup!

We have another young Zoroastrian who has taken his first steps towards being in the main Canadian Cricket team. His name is Khushroo Wadia and he recently represented Canada for the first time in the Americas tournament in Florida.

Below are excerpts from an article written by dreamcricket.com

“After surviving an early onslaught from opening batsman Khushroo Wadia, USA bowled Canada out for 131 but a failure to accelerate in the middle overs doomed USA’s chase as they lost by 10 runs to Canada on Friday night inside the Central Broward Regional Park stadium at the 2011 ICC Americas Division One T20 tournament in Lauderdale, Florida. Wadia was named Man of the Match after top scoring on the evening with 56 in 35 balls including eight boundaries and a six.

“Khushroo was batting well throughout the innings and throughout the week,” said Canada captain Jimmy Hansra. “Khushroo’s been having amazing form. He’s helping us out for sure in the top order. Canada won the toss and elected to bat first in the late afternoon sun. Wadia and Jason Sandher got Canada off to a brilliant start with a 72-run opening stand that could have potentially been nipped in the bud before a run was put on the board. In the fifth over, Wadia feasted on Shuja’s bowling for 22 runs, punishing the USA pacer for straying in line by hitting four of the five boundaries in the over on the leg side.

Wadia crossed 50 in 32 balls during George’s next over, bashing a six over long on but George got revenge three balls later as Wadia chipped a half-tracker straight back to the spinner, who held on to a low return catch.”

Khushroo Wadia was named Man of the Match for his 56 in 35 balls, with eight fours and one six. Khushroo was also named Man of the Tournament and had the best batting average.”

Khushroo started his cricket playing times in Canada with ZCC and continues to play for them when he is available. Khushroo was also an integral part of the ZCC team that toured the UK in 2006 and won an elite 6 a side tournament in Chessington, London. We would like to congratulate Khushroo on this remarkable achievement and wish him all the success in his endeavours to reach the very top of Cricket for Canada.

OZCF Yellow Pages

Most people have heard of the Yellow Pages. It first started out as a large book that was used to find businesses and services and sometimes as a useful prop to raise things. Then it progressed to the Internet and is a strong force for Business searches on the World Wide Web.

Well, the OZCF has its own Yellow Pages built into its web site!
Want to start up a business? Have a business already? Why not use the OZCF web site and its Yellow Pages to advertise your business. All you need to do is be a paid up member for 2010 and have it will cost you only $40!

It's a very small fee that allows your business to be advertised by business category for the entire year. We have eight businesses signed up and some have already reported enquiries from within our website. Zoroastrians are able to help each other by obtaining services from within and spreading the excellent service provided by our community.

If interested, please do contact Rumi Jasavala at rumijas@hotmail.com or call 905-257-7864. Or contact Sam Bharda at bhardas@usa.net

ITEM OF INTEREST

Remembering Dr. Roda Patel - Her Life and Work

The global Zarathushti community lost one of its heroes on August 8, 2011. Dr. Roda Patel, of Chicago, Illinois, was a shining example of what it means to be a Zarathushti and true humanitarian.

As Zoroastrians Stepping Forward and other Zarathushti next generation humanitarian initiatives begin to take flight, it is so fitting to celebrate the example set by Dr. Patel. Her work and passion was to do more for those less fortunate and impoverished.

She is an inspiration. And as noted below, Dr. Patel's work in establishing the Gram Seva Foundation (www.gramseva.org) spread from helping 30 children in rural Gujarat, India, to more than 5,000.

She is survived by her husband Dr. Khushroo Patel, their children Farhad, Shiraz and Rokhsana and many grandchildren and family. "We share the news that our beloved Roda Patel passed away after her recent struggle with cancer. She is and will remain an inspiration to so many people across the world. Her pain is gone and she is at peace – we will all celebrate her life.

"Roda Patel was born in Mumbai, India on January 25, 1934. She grew up in Navsari and went to school in Punjgany. She attended college and medical school in Mumbai. During her school years she became acquainted with Khushroo Patel, who she later married on April 28, 1963. They immigrated to Chicago after she received a Rhodes Scholarship to further study Paediatrics.

"Roda practiced and taught paediatrics for many years. She took a brief hiatus from paediatrics to raise three children Farhad, Shiraz, and Rokhsana. In 1977, she battled and overcame breast cancer. During her bout with cancer, she rekindled her passion for art and flourished as an artist. In 1994, at the age of 60, she started her humanitarian work in India by joining forces with the Gram Seva Trust. She created a program to educate, nourish and help the rural children of India. Through her warmth, persistence and talents, the program Roda started has grown from serving 30 children to serving over 5,000 children.

"Roda Patel will be remembered as a wonderful wife, mother, paediatrician and humanitarian.

"In lieu of flowers, we respectfully request donations to Mom's beloved foundation Gram Seva Foundation, 2030 Post Rd., Northbrook, IL 60062 or you can also donate via Paypal on the Gram Seva Trust website at <http://www.gramseva.org/>"

Power of Prayers

by Farida Bamji

"Morning has broken"
It's a New Day!
Prayers when recited
Keeps the ugliness at bay!
Food is for the body
Prayers for the Soul
One without the other
Can't make a person whole
"No Fire or Coal so hotly glows
As the secret love of which
No one knows"
When the Prayers begin to flow,
I am reminded to trudge
The Path of Straight & Narrow
When I pray
My heart begins to sing
As they are like
"The Wind Beneath my wings"
"Lean on me"
That's what Prayers
Seem to say:
"We'll take all
Tears, Sadness & blues out
Of your way
Whatever I have done & said
I do my best
'Cause I know the Power
Of Prayers takes care of the rest."
